

TERMS OF USE

Welcome to the website of Oy Fision Ltd. (including Fision Consulting), to contact us electronically or to follow Fision via LinkedIn.

We have prepared Fision's website to serve our customers better. The use of Fision's website requires acceptance of these Terms of Use, and by visiting our website you agree to comply with them. We update the Terms of Use from time to time to keep them current.

Read the Terms of Use carefully before using the website. Please do not use the pages if you do not accept these Terms of Use.

Use of Fision's website, content, intellectual property rights (including logos and trademarks) and liability for damage

Fision.fi (including consulting.fision.fi) – the pages are located on a Finnish server and the web pages can be viewed on a computer or similar device. We offer the web pages to visitors as they are and we reserve the right to update the pages and restrict access to them at any time. We do not guarantee error-free and uninterrupted use of the pages, and we are not responsible for any indirect or direct damages that may arise from the use of the pages.

The content and image material of the pages are the property of Fision and its partners and are protected by copyright law, unless otherwise stated. All rights to these websites belong to Fision or its partners and/or licensors. Any use of these websites or their content without Fision's prior written permission is prohibited. Any kind of use of the Fision logo is strictly prohibited.

The use of press releases and other public documents published by Fision for public information is permitted if the source of the information is mentioned when using it.

Unauthorized use or distribution of the material contained on Fision's website may violate copyright, trademark rights and other protective rights, and lead to punishment and liability for damages.

Links on the website

If Fision's website contains links to third-party websites or services, Fision is not responsible for the material or service contained on third-party websites. The use of third-party pages is entirely at the user's own risk. Please familiarize yourself with the terms of use of the pages and accept them before starting to use them.

Material sent by the user and electronic contact

By sending unsolicited material addressed to Fision (e.g. feedback) by e-mail or via the website, the user at the same time gives Fision and the users of the pages the right to use and transfer the material sent free of charge, unless otherwise agreed.

Fision does not check the content of the provided material or its correctness and does not take any responsibility for its content. The sender accepts and confirms the material he sends to our website, that it is his/hers own or that he/she has permission to send it, and that the material is not illegal or otherwise unfit for publication. Fision also requires that the sender of the material has taken precautions to find and remove any viruses from the material. Fision has the right to remove material sent to it from the site at any time.

Service-specific conditions apply to the customer's material related to the use of Fision's services.

Personal data protection and cookies

Fision complies with the Finnish Data Protection Act and the EU General Data Protection Regulation No. 2016/679 (the EU General Data Protection Regulation, GDPR) and protects the privacy of people visiting its website. See Privacy Policy.

A cookie refers to data that the web server stores on the hard disk of the computer, smartphone or tablet visiting the website in order to identify the Visitor on the website. With the help of cookies, visitors to the website can be offered e.g. targeted content and product recommendations, the selected transaction language may be recognized and the service may be developed to be even more customer-friendly. Please note that the default settings of the web browsers used on the computer probably accept cookies, but they can be deleted from the browser after using the service or rejected from the web browser settings.

Fision does not use cookies on its website.

Instead, we use cookies to track activity on LinkedIn. These cookies do not tell us who visits the pages, but we can collect a target audience based on the information, to whom we can show more targeted content. Check out the LinkedIn cookie policy here.
